City of Clayton 2015 Community Survey Executive Summary Report

Overview and Methodology

ETC Institute administered the DirectionFinder® survey for the City of Clayton, Missouri for the sixth time during the summer of 2015. The survey was administered as part of the City's ongoing effort to assess citizen satisfaction with the quality of city services. The first survey was administered in 2009.

Methodology. A seven-page survey was mailed to a random sample of 1,800 households in the City of Clayton. The mailed survey included a postage-paid return envelope, a cover letter explaining the purpose of the survey and a link to the online version of the survey (www.2015claytoncommunitysurvey.com). Approximately seven days after the surveys were mailed, residents who received the survey were contacted by phone. Those who indicated that they had not returned the survey or completed it online were given the option of completing it by phone.

The goal was to receive at least 400 completed surveys. This goal was exceeded, with a total of 441 households completing a survey. The results for the random sample of 441 households have a 95% level of confidence with a precision of at least +/- 4.7%.

Location of Respondents.

In order to better understand how well services are being delivered by the City, ETC Institute geocoded the home address of respondents to the survey. The map to the right shows the physical distribution of survey respondents based on the locations of their homes.

Interpretation of “Don’t Know” Responses. The percentage of “don’t know” responses has been excluded from many of the graphs in this report to assess satisfaction with residents who had used City services and to facilitate valid comparisons with other communities in the benchmarking analysis. Since the number of “don’t know” responses often reflects the utilization and awareness of city services, the percentage of “don’t know” responses has been included in the tabular data in Section 4 of this report. When the “don’t know” responses have been excluded, the text of this report will indicate that the responses have been excluded with the phrase “who had an opinion.”

This report contains:

- an executive summary of the methodology for administering the survey and major findings
- charts showing the overall results of the survey (Section 1)
- benchmarking data that show how the results for Clayton compare to residents in other communities (Section 2)
- Importance-satisfaction analysis that can help the City set priorities for improvement (Section 3)
- tabular data that shows the overall results for each question on the survey (Section 4)
- a copy of the survey instrument (Section 5)

The following was published as a separate appendix:

- GIS maps that show the results of selected questions on the survey

Quality of Life in the City

Nearly all (96%) of the residents surveyed, who had an opinion, were “very satisfied” or “satisfied” with the overall quality of life in the City. When asked about the quality of services provided by the City, ninety-two percent (92%) of the residents surveyed, who had an opinion, were either “very satisfied” or “satisfied”.

Overall Satisfaction with City Services

The overall city services that had the highest levels of satisfaction, based upon the combined percentage of “very satisfied” and “satisfied” responses among residents who had an opinion, were: the quality of public safety services (93%), the quality of parks and recreation programs and facilities (92%), maintenance of City buildings and facilities (83%), the quality of customer service received from City employees (76%), and the effectiveness of City communication with citizens (76%).

Satisfaction with Specific City Services

- Public Safety. The highest levels of satisfaction with public safety services, based upon the combined percentage of “very satisfied” and “satisfied” responses among residents who had an opinion, were: how quickly the Fire Department responds to emergencies (92%), how quickly police respond to emergencies (90%), quality of the Clayton Fire Department, (90%), how quickly ambulance/EMS responds to emergencies (90%), and the competency of the Fire Department and ambulance service (90%).

Residents were also asked to rate how safe they felt in various situations in the City. The areas/situations where residents felt most safe, based upon the combined percentage of “very safe” and “safe” responses among those who had an opinion, were: walking alone in their neighborhood in general (100%), and walking alone in their neighborhood during the day (100%), and walking alone in business areas during the day (99%).

- Maintenance and Public Works. The highest levels of satisfaction with maintenance and public works in the City of Clayton, based upon the combined percentage of “very satisfied” and “satisfied” responses among residents who had an opinion, were: maintenance of City buildings (85%), snow removal on major City streets (84%), and landscaping and appearance of areas along streets (84%).
- Parks and Recreation. The highest levels of satisfaction with parks and recreation, based upon the combined percentage of “very satisfied” and “satisfied” responses among residents who had an opinion, were: maintenance of City parks (93%), how close neighborhood parks are to your home (89%), the availability of information about City parks (82%), and the quality of outdoor athletic fields (81%).
- City Communication. The highest levels of satisfaction with the City’s communication services, based upon the combined percentage of “very satisfied” and “satisfied” responses among residents, who had an opinion, were: the availability of information about City programs and services (80%), City efforts to keep residents informed about local issues (73%), and how well the City’s communications meet resident needs (66%).
- Waste Collection Service. Residents were generally satisfied with the City’s waste collection service. Ninety-three percent (93%) of the residents surveyed, who had an opinion, were “very satisfied” and “satisfied” with the quality of residential trash collection service; 89% of the residents surveyed, who had an opinion, were “very satisfied” and “satisfied” quality of recycling collection services and 88% were satisfied with the quality of yard waste collection services.

- Enforcement of City Codes and Ordinances. The highest levels of satisfaction with the enforcement of City codes and ordinances, based upon the combined percentage of “very satisfied” and “satisfied” responses among residents, who had an opinion, were: codes designed to protect public safety (75%), cleanup of litter and debris on private property (71%), and the maintenance of business property (71%).
- Customer Service. Residents were asked to indicate how often City employees they interacted with displayed various behaviors. The items that residents rated highest, based upon the combined percentage of residents who reported the City employee “always” or “usually” displayed the behavior, were: how easy the department was to contact (71%) and how courteously you were treated (71%).
- Transportation. The highest levels of satisfaction with transportation in Clayton, based upon the combined percentage of “very satisfied” and “satisfied” responses among residents, who had an opinion, were: ease of travel to and from work (80%), ease of travel from home to schools (79%) and availability of pedestrian walkways (75%).

Other Findings

Some of the other major findings from the survey are listed below:

- 82% of the residents surveyed have used Clayton’s parks, recreation facilities or programs over the last 12 months.
- Of the six parks and recreation initiatives listed, residents felt the most important initiative in the City was the feeling of safety in City parks (97%).

- Overall quality of life in the City (+22%)
- City efforts to prevent crime (+20%)
- Yard waste collection services (+20%)

Investment Priorities

Recommended Priorities for the Next Two Years. In order to help the City identify investment priorities for the next two years, ETC Institute conducted an Importance-Satisfaction (I-S) analysis. This analysis examined the importance that residents placed on each City service and the level of satisfaction with each service. By identifying services of high importance and low satisfaction, the analysis identified which services will have the most impact on overall satisfaction with City services over the next two years. If the City wants to improve its overall satisfaction rating, the City should prioritize investments in services with the highest Importance Satisfaction (I-S) ratings.

Details regarding the methodology for the analysis are provided in the Section 3 of this report. Based on the results of the Importance-Satisfaction (I-S) Analysis, ETC Institute recommends the following:

- Overall Priorities for the City. The first level of analysis reviewed the importance of and satisfaction with major categories of City services. This analysis was conducted to help set the overall priorities for the City. Based on the results of this analysis, the major services that are recommended as the top two priorities for investment over the next two years in order to raise the City's overall satisfaction rating are listed below in descending order of the Importance-Satisfaction rating:
 - Maintenance of City streets (IS Rating = .3550)
 - Flow of traffic and congestion management (IS Rating = .2050)
- Priorities Within Departments/Specific Areas: The second level of analysis reviewed the importance of and satisfaction of services within departments and specific service areas. This analysis was conducted to help departmental managers set priorities for their department. Based on the results of this analysis, the services that are recommended as the top priorities within each department over the next two years are listed below:
 - Public Safety: No high priorities identified
 - City Maintenance/Public Works: Condition of City sidewalks
 - Parks and Recreation: Number of walking and biking trails

Benchmarking Analysis

2015 DirectionFinder® Survey Benchmarking Summary Report

Overview

ETC Institute's DirectionFinder program was originally developed in 1999 to help community leaders across the United States use statistically valid community survey data as a tool for making better decisions. Since November of 1999, the survey has been administered in more than 230 cities and counties in 43 states. Most participating cities conduct the survey on an annual or biennial basis.

This report contains benchmarking data from two sources: (1) a national survey that was administered by ETC Institute during the fall of 2014 to a random sample of more than 4,000 residents across the United States and (2) a regional survey that was administered during the fall of 2014 to a random sample of more than 400 residents in Kansas and Missouri.

Interpreting the Charts

The charts on the following pages show how the overall results for Clayton compare to the a U.S. national and regional averages based on the results of the 2014 survey that was administered by ETC Institute to a random sample of more than 4,000 residents across the United States, and the regional survey administered to more than 400 residents living in communities throughout Missouri and Kansas. The City of Clayton's results are shown in blue, the Missouri/Kansas averages are shown in red and the National averages are shown in yellow in the charts on the following pages.

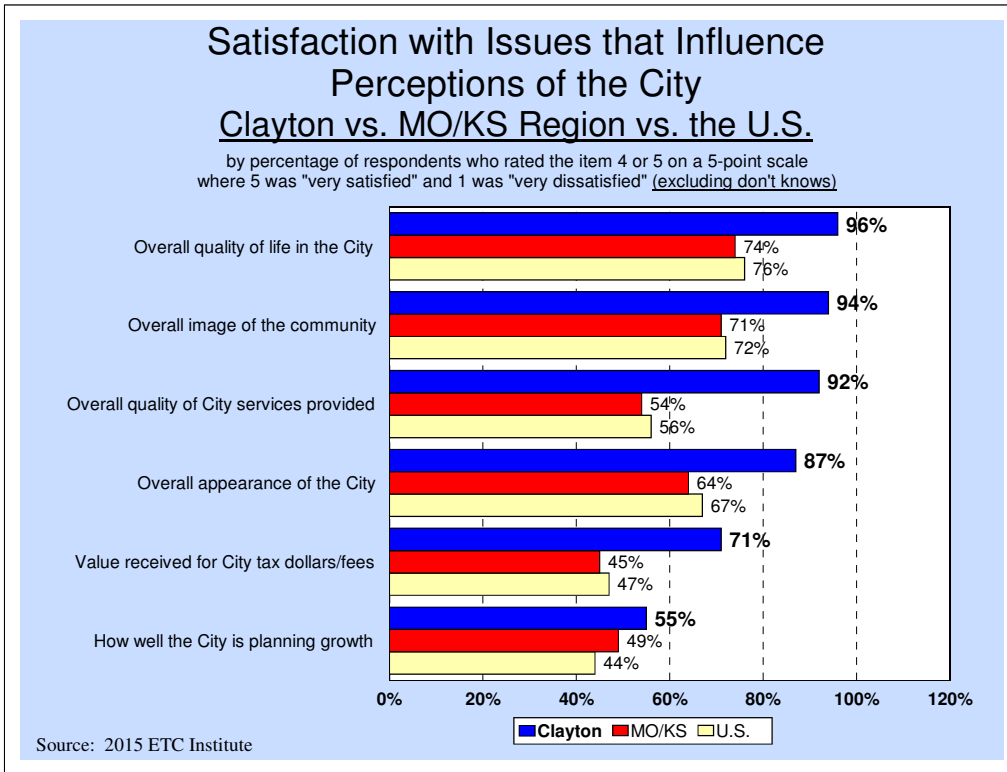

National Benchmarks

Note: The benchmarking data contained in this report is protected intellectual property. Any reproduction of the benchmarking information in this report by persons or organizations not directly affiliated with the City of Clayton, Missouri is not authorized without written consent from ETC Institute.

Section 3:
Importance-Satisfaction
Analysis

Importance-Satisfaction Analysis

The City of Clayton, Missouri

Overview

Today, city officials have limited resources which need to be targeted to activities that are of the most benefit to their citizens. Two of the most important criteria for decision making are (1) to target resources toward services of the highest importance to citizens; and (2) to target resources toward those services where citizens are the least satisfied.

The Importance-Satisfaction (IS) rating is a unique tool that allows public officials to better understand both of these highly important decision making criteria for each of the services they are providing. The Importance-Satisfaction rating is based on the concept that cities will maximize overall citizen satisfaction by emphasizing improvements in those service categories where the level of satisfaction is relatively low and the perceived importance of the service is relatively high.

Methodology

The rating is calculated by summing the percentage of responses for items selected as the first, second, and third most important services for the City to emphasize over the next two years. This sum is then multiplied by 1 minus the percentage of respondents that indicated they were positively satisfied with the City's performance in the related area (the sum of the ratings of 4 and 5 on a 5-point scale excluding "don't know" responses). "Don't know" responses are excluded from the calculation to ensure that the satisfaction ratings among service categories are comparable. $[IS = \text{Importance} \times (1 - \text{Satisfaction})]$.

Example of the Calculation. Respondents were asked to identify the major services they thought were the most important for the City to provide. Fifty percent (50%) of residents selected "flow of traffic & congestion management" as one of the most important major services to provide.

With regard to satisfaction, fifty-nine percent (59%) of the residents surveyed rated their overall satisfaction with “flow of traffic & congestion management” as a “4” or a “5” on a 5-point scale (where “5” means “very satisfied”). The I-S rating for “flow of traffic & congestion management” was calculated by multiplying the sum of the most important percentages by 1 minus the sum of the satisfaction percentages. In this example, 50% was multiplied by 41% (1-0.59). This calculation yielded an I-S rating of 0.205, which ranked second out of nine major City services.

The maximum rating is 1.00 and would be achieved when 100% of the respondents select an item as one of their top three choices to emphasize over the next two years and 0% indicate that they are positively satisfied with the delivery of the service.

The lowest rating is 0.00 and could be achieved under either one of the following two situations:

- if 100% of the respondents were positively satisfied with the delivery of the service
- if none (0%) of the respondents selected the service as one of the three most important areas for the City to emphasize over the next two years.

Interpreting the Ratings

Ratings that are greater than or equal to 0.20 identify areas that should receive significantly more emphasis over the next two years. Ratings from .10 to .20 identify service areas that should receive increased emphasis. Ratings less than .10 should continue to receive the current level of emphasis.

- Definitely Increase Emphasis ($IS \geq 0.20$)
- Increase Current Emphasis ($0.10 \leq IS < 0.20$)
- Maintain Current Emphasis ($IS < 0.10$)

The results for Clayton are provided on the following page.

Importance-Satisfaction Matrix Analysis

The Importance-Satisfaction rating is based on the concept that public agencies will maximize overall customer satisfaction by emphasizing improvements in those areas where the level of satisfaction is relatively low and the perceived importance of the service is relatively high. ETC Institute developed an Importance-Satisfaction Matrix to display the perceived importance of major services that were assessed on the survey against the perceived quality of service delivery. The two axes on the matrix represent Satisfaction (vertical) and relative Importance (horizontal).

The I-S (Importance-Satisfaction) matrix should be interpreted as follows.

- Continued Emphasis (above average importance and above average satisfaction). This area shows where the City is meeting customer expectations. Items in this area have a significant impact on the customer's overall level of satisfaction. The City should maintain (or slightly increase) emphasis on items in this area.
- Exceeding Expectations (below average importance and above average satisfaction). This area shows where the City is performing significantly better than customers expect the City to perform. Items in this area do not significantly affect the overall level of satisfaction that residents have with City services. The City should maintain (or slightly decrease) emphasis on items in this area.
- Opportunities for Improvement (above average importance and below average satisfaction). This area shows where the City is not performing as well as residents expect the City to perform. This area has a significant impact on customer satisfaction, and the City should DEFINITELY increase emphasis on items in this area.
- Less Important (below average importance and below average satisfaction). This area shows where the City is not performing well relative to the City's performance in other areas; however, this area is generally considered to be less important to residents. This area does not significantly affect overall satisfaction with City services because the items are less important to residents. The agency should maintain current levels of emphasis on items in this area.

28. Shaw Park Ice Rink: The ice rink compressors, built in 1961, will be unable to support an ice skating season this winter without either repair or replacement.

The City is considering several possible actions for how to address the future of the ice rink. Below is a list of possible actions. For each action, indicate if it is something you would "strongly support", "support", "oppose" or "strongly oppose".

Possible City Actions		Strongly Support	Support	Oppose	Strongly Oppose	Don't Know
A.	Demolish the ice rink and convert the area to green space This would require an expense of up to $125,000 funded from the annual budget to demolish the rink and landscape the area.	4	3	2	1	9
B.	Maintain the existing ice rink This would require an expense of up to $250,000 funded from the annual budget to repair and rebuild the original ice rink compressor units and also repair the dasher boards. This interim solution is expected to maintain the existing ice rink for a projected 2-3 years.	4	3	2	1	9
C.	Renovate the existing ice rink This would require the issuance of up to $3.5 million of special obligation bonds to replace the original ice rink compressor units with a new ice control system and would also include repairs to the ice rink building and new dasher boards. The expected life of a new ice control system is 40 years. The bonds issued for this project could be paid for by using a portion of the existing ½ cent sales tax dedicated to park and storm water improvements.	4	3	2	1	9
D.	Replace the ice rink with a multipurpose facility This would require the issuance of up to $6 million of special obligation bonds to replace the outdated ice rink with a new rink that could be used year-round by converting the surface for other activities during non-winter months. The expected life of a new rink is 40 years. The bonds issued for this project could be paid for by using a portion of the existing ½ cent sales tax dedicated to park and storm water improvements.	4	3	2	1	9

Interpreting the Maps

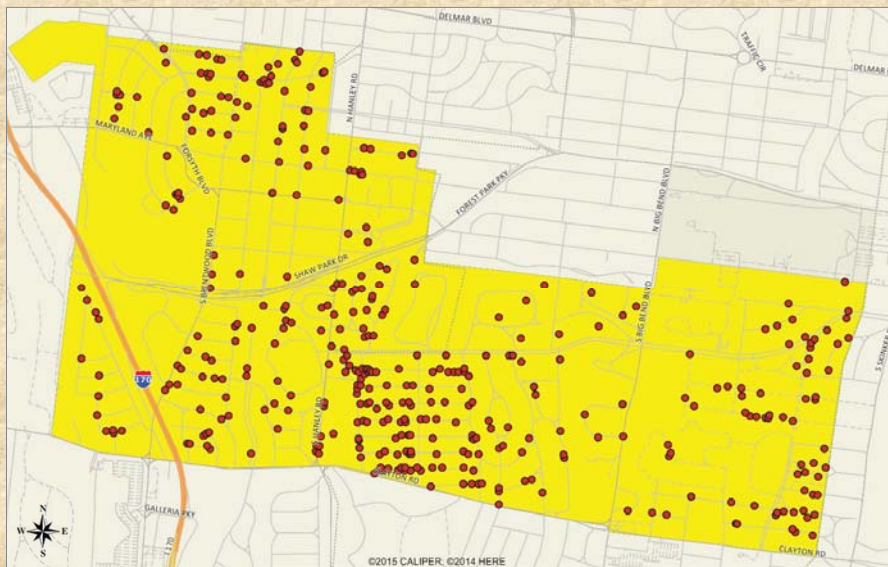

The maps on the following pages show the mean ratings for several questions by Census Block Group in the City of Clayton.

If all areas on a map are the same color, then residents generally feel the same about that issue regardless of the location of their home.

When reading the maps, please use the following color scheme as a guide:

- DARK/LIGHT BLUE shades indicate POSITIVE ratings. Shades of blue generally indicate higher levels of “very satisfied” or “satisfied” responses, higher levels of “very safe” or “safe” responses or higher levels of agreement depending upon the type of question.
- YELLOW shades indicate NEUTRAL ratings. Shades of yellow generally indicate that residents thought the quality of service delivery is adequate or that residents were neutral about the issue in question.
- DARK/LIGHT RED shades indicate NEGATIVE ratings. Shades of red generally indicate higher levels of “dissatisfied” or “very dissatisfied” responses, higher levels of “unsafe” or “very unsafe” responses and higher levels of disagreement depending on the question.
